Sales for IE DVD & Poster Series

One of the most inviting gifts for your colleagues and friends both personally and professionally this Christmas and New Year season will be the 4 sets (16 different) invitational posters and a set of the newly produced Invitational Education(IE) DVD.

In the 16 posters, you will find many of the thoughts provoking statements on Invitation Education matches well with great photos and cartoon. The IE DVD captured the salient strategies of the 5 pioneering IE Hong Kong schools' journey to develop as an inviting school and with all the great speeches by Dr Purkey , Dr Siegel, Dr Novak and many others that spoke in the 2005 Leadership Institute in Hong Kong. Indeed the success production for these resources are due to many friends of IE give selflessly for the design, editing and production that aimed to produce with the highest quality for the benefit of children which you will witness once you get a chance to see them and use them!!

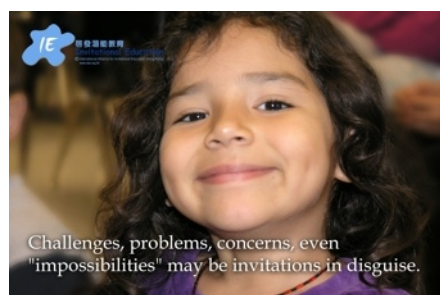

In order to encourage you to get hold of these valuable resources and give them to yourself or others as meaningful gifts for this holiday season, IAIE decided to give a 30 % discounts on the sale of these items for two months until the end of Feb 2007.

This is not just a bargain but is a concrete way to support yourself and others on the journey to be intentionally inviting to yourself and others both personally and professionally. You are invited!
