2015 Paula Helen Stanley Fidelity Award Overview

Schools that have received the Inviting School Award are encouraged to continue their study and implementation of Invitational Education through the Paula H. Stanley Fidelity Award program. This reflective process acknowledges schools for continuing to grow and sustain Invitational practices with five levels of Fidelity awards, which may be applied for every two years. The prestigious Gold Starfish Fidelity Award may be achieved after ten years of fidelity commitment to invitational principles.

The Fidelity Award was named for Dr. Paula Helen Stanley, late professor of Counselor Education at Radford University, who served for many years as Director of the Radford University Center for Invitational Education. Her legacy as an inspiring, inviting educator lives on through those who receive the Fidelity Award.

To receive The Paula Helen Stanley Fidelity Award schools must complete the following 5 steps:

1. Be officially recognized as an Inviting School
2. Maintain a current IAIE Institutional Membership
3. Complete and submit an application to the Fidelity Award Committee stating interest in applying for the Fidelity Award. Applications must be received by March 31, 2015.
4. Administer the Inviting School Survey (ISS-R) to at least 100 school stakeholders
5. Submit a report including the following components:
 - An assessment of school growth based on the IE Helix model.
 - A summary of how IE has impacted your school climate and culture, and
 - A description of how IE will influence your school's future goals and plans.
