

Graduate School of Education
M.Ed. in Invitational Education®

Are you an Invitational Educator?

If you are or would like to be, this new on-line Master's of Education may be for you.

Touro University California* is pleased to announce the first and only Master's degree programme in the world focused on Invitational Education®. This programme has been designed specifically for teachers and administrators in Hong Kong and mainland China.

Please watch the following video for information about the programme that was conceived of by Drs. Jim

<https://mail.google.com/mail/u/0/#inbox/1606a7c62518004a?projector=1>

Additional information can be found at:

http://cehs.tu.edu/gsoe/madegree/invitational_educ_programme.html

Sample content from the first course, as well as the Canvas learning environment that will be used to deliver all courses, can be reviewed by self-enrolling at:

<https://canvas.instructure.com/enroll/WMPCWP>

You can apply to be a part of the first cohort for this historic programme at:

https://app.applyyourself.com/AYApplicantLogin/fl_ApplicantLogin.asp?id=touro

Please see the guide at http://cehs.tu.edu/gsoe/madegree/ie_application_procedure.html for helpful hints on your application. There is no application fee for this programme!

If you have any specific questions, please feel free to contact me at michael.barbour@tu.edu

Michael K. Barbour
Programme Coordinator, Invitational Education®
Associate Professor of Instructional Design for the College of Education and Health Services
Touro University California